

QUIZ #1

Round 1:

1. Which name is Cassius Clay better known by?
2. On which planet is a day longer than a year?
3. Who served the shortest term and president of the United States?
4. How many sections does a dartboard have in total?
5. Who wrote “it was the best of times, it was the worst of times”?
6. ‘A Clowder’ refers to a group of which animal?
7. What is Oncology the study of?
8. What is ‘G’ in the NATO alphabet?

Round 2: Order the Following

1. Movie Release Date (earliest to latest):

Titanic, Saving Private Ryan, Fight Club, Independence Day

2. Famous American's Heights (shortest to tallest):

Abraham Lincoln, Michael Jordan, Donald Trump, Patrick Mahomes

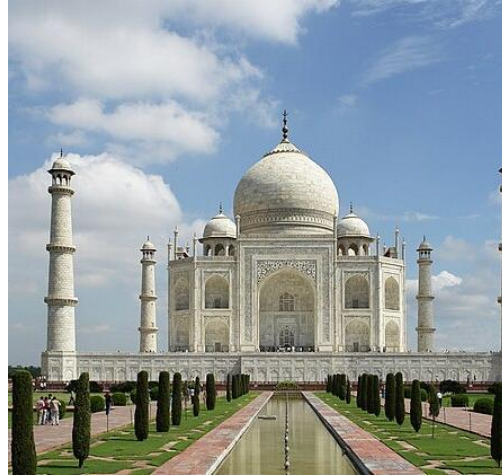

3. Inventions (earliest to latest):

Coca Cola, Pepsi, Dr. Pepper, Sprite

4. Coin Diameters (smallest to largest):

One Euro, One British Pound, One US quarter, One Swiss Franc

Round 3: Name the City

Round 4:

1. Heisenberg's uncertainty principle states you cannot simultaneously know the momentum and what else of a particle?
2. What is the most reactive gas?
3. Who is Bolivia named after?
4. Which Franz Kafka novel features a protagonist who turns into an insect?
5. Which cryptographic function is used for validating Bitcoin transactions?
6. Which computer science term did John McCarthy coin in 1956?
7. The great fire of London famously started in what type of establishment?
8. Which Greek philosopher was sentenced to death by drinking Hemlock?

Round 5: Matching Names

1. This Disney Parrot is a Shakesperian antagonist
2. This Country is in the Ivy League
3. This paradise is home of the Haka
4. This bridged river flows quickly in China
5. This brother of the night's watch was the father of Epidemiology
6. This famous judge is the brother of Michael
7. This Bull has been to Wakanda
8. This Automobile manufacturer is out of this world